FOOTBALL.

SOUTH CHINA AGAIN VICTORIOUS.

Beat Batavia Selected In "Rubber Game."

CAPTAIN SCORE TWICE.

(Special to "China Mail".)

Batavia, To-day.

The South China A.A. touring football eleven yesterday beat the Batavia Selected XI by 3 goals to 1 to win the rubber encounter. Lee Wai-tung, the skipper of the side, scored twice and his partner, Ip Pak-wah, once.

In their first encounter South China lost by the odd goal in three, but fully atoned for their defeat in the next game when they won convincingly by 3 goals to 1. Yesterday's game proved their supremacy again and restored their reputation.

CARLISLE UNITED AGAIN WIN.

Aldershot Draw With Queen's Park.

London, To-day.

Aldershot secured their first point in the Southern Section of the Third Division when they visited Queen's Park and drew at two goals all. This was also the first point to be gained by the Park side. Carlisle United continued in winning vein when they registered a home win over Crewe Alexandra by two clear goals. On Saturday they beat Rochdale in an away fixture by the only goal scored. This was Crewe's first defeat.—Reuter.

NEGROES POOR FOOD FOR COMMUNISM.

Propaganda To Stop In New York.

CONVERSION HOPELESS.

London, To-day.

The decision of the Comintern communist agency, to suspend propaganda among the coloured Americans and which led to a protest by coloured delegates to the central body, is explained in a statement from the Comintern headquarters which says: "The inherent ignorance of the coloured races makes their unity impossible, as is evidenced by the recent battle in New York between Africans and West Indians who are as short-sighted as Hindus and Moslems. Therefore, at present, it is deemed advisable to concentrate attention on the European proletariat who are more cultured, instead of wasting time and money in a futile endeavour to enlighten 'dark' fools," says the Comintern.—Reuter.

NEW DANGER OF SINO-JAP. WAR

'DAILY EXPRESS' PREDICTS FRESH HOSTILITIES

MANCHUKUO MAY ALLY WITH JAPAN FOR DEFENCE.

LEADERS TO NEGOTIATE

London, To-day.

"New danger of Sino-Japanese war" is the banner heading on the front page of the Daily Express, featuring a telegram from its Mukden correspondent reporting that Manchukuo has organised a committee headed by the Foreign Minister to negotiate immediately for a treaty for a defensive alliance with Japan.

The Daily Express declares that this is "ominous," and the development is likely to lead to renewed Sino-Japanese hostilities. The treaty, if carried out, will give Japan full military control of Manchuria. A large scale conflict appears to be inevitable.—Reuter.

EUROPEAN AIRMEN AT HESTON RALLY.

Polish Flier Comes 2,000 Miles.

IN BRITISH PLANE.

London, To-day.

Aeroplanes of many European nations, piloted by men and women who have come to England for a week-end as guests of British airmen, arrived at Heston air port during the afternoon.

The air rally has been organised to enable the British pilots to acknowledge the hospitality received at foreign aerodromes during the year.

There was an arrival competition in connection with the meeting which was won by Count Skorzeski, who had flown 2,000 miles from Poland with his wife, in a British Moth. A French plane was second and Belgian third. Over 50 visiting aeroplanes are taking part in the rally.—British Wireless Service.

An unknown Chinese male, 30, and having the appearance of a street coolie, was picked up by the Police in Yaumatei district yesterday morning, in an unconscious condition. He was removed to the Kwong Wah Hospital where he died. No suspicious circumstances are attached to the case.

Irish Farmers Demand Peace With Britain

Dublin, To-day.

A resolution calling upon the Dail immediately to end the economic war with Great Britain, was passed at a meeting of farmers and ratepayers of Dublin, Meath and Kildare, held in the Mansion House here.

The resolution included a request to every country in the Free State to hold meetings and prepare for a convention to be held in Dublin on September 15 with a view to the adoption of effective measures to force the Government's hand.

Observers see a serious menace to Mr. de Valera's hold upon the country, and an end to his hope of "freedom" from the Empire.—Reuter.

Demonstrating to the Court this morning that because of the attraction caused by his little bird show he could not help causing an obstruction on Jubilee Street yesterday, Ho Pao-chung, a native of Shanghai, was discharged by His Worship with the suggestion that he confine himself to side streets and the Reclamation Grounds.

GENERAL TSAI WILL NOT GO TO JEHOI BORDER

Returns To Anti-Red War In Fukien.

CONFLICTING REPORTS.

Concludes Conference With Marshal Chiang

It is learned from reliable sources that General Tsai Ting-kai, commander of the 19th Route Army, is returning to Fukien on September 7 and that there is no likelihood at present of the men under his command being thrown into the Jehoi frontier warfare.

Simultaneously it was gathered that the rumour that the 19th Route Army would return to its old battle ground in the Shanghai vicinity, in view of the national alarm over the growing tension in that sector, was without sound foundation. General Tsai's conference with Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, concluded recently, appears to have settled the destiny of the 19th Route Army. The men of that unit will continue their guerrilla warfare against the elusive and scattered bandit forces in China's interior.

There were good reasons to suppose that General Tsai would be sent to Jehoi. Many confidently expected that General Tsai would be rushed to the two latest points of danger, but it appears that rail communication with the Jehoi country is so un dependable that no such plan is feasible and that the Shanghai situation does not warrant the expense.

Meanwhile, the 19th Route Army has been making steady progress against the Red Forces in Fukien and their successes have won them further applause from the Central Government. The campaign will not be interrupted.

FURTHER DROP IN DOLLAR.

The local dollar dropped a further 1/4 and now stands at 1/4 1/4. Silver has remained steady, spot being quoted at 18-7/16 and forward at 18 1/2.

The London on New York cross rate was given at £-G35.46% and the New York on London at £-G35.46%.

LONDON SECURITIES STEADY ON UPWARD TREND.

Bear Traders Fight To Press Wall Street Stock.

London, To-day.

The rise in gilt-edged securities which has been a notable feature of the London Stock Exchange market since the Treasury announcement regarding the forthcoming repayment of the 4 1/2 per cent War Loan and the 4 1/2 per cent Treasury Bonds, continued today. All opened at higher levels and improved further in subsequent dealings. British Wireless Services, however, fell in spite of the efforts of "bear" traders to depress the Wall Street Market, the advance of industrial sales and shares showed a slight gain from 48 to 49 1/2. There is considerable activity in New York.

Unattached Fliers May See Fighting

Ex-Pilots Of Canton Have Opportunity.

PLANES FROM OVERSEAS.

Likely To Form Nanking "Defence Force."

The probability that several dozen of China's crack fighting airmen, who recently left the Canton Air Force through friction with their commanding officers, may form a National Defence Air Force with headquarters at Nanking, and may use the war planes supplied by funds subscribed by overseas Chinese, is announced in well-informed circles.

Mr. Wu Kam-ngar, who recently returned from America having accomplished his mission of raising funds for the purchase of fighting aeroplanes, refused to take service with the Canton administration, and it is partly through him that the former Canton airmen are likely to obtain posts at Nanking and see fighting in the north country.

The story of the breach between the Cantonese airmen and their command is related semi-officially in connection with this report of an organisation of a new branch of National Defence.

"JIMMY" WALKER RESIGNS.

Criticises Roosevelt's Inquiry Methods.

CORRUPTION CHARGED AGAINST NEW YORK MAYOR.

New York, To-day.

Mr. James J. Walker, the dapper Mayor of New York, has resigned, after the hearing of certain charges preferred against him, accusing him of having hidden aside in the Bank deposits of Russell T. Sherwood, his Secretary, who is at present hiding in Mexico.

Submitting the case to the people of New York, Mayor Walker criticised the way Governor Franklin Roosevelt had conducted the inquiry. Alleging corruption of the administration, he said it was a question of whether he would permit himself "to be lynched to satisfy prejudice or political ambition."—Reuter's American Service.

During the course of the proceedings, John J. Curtin, the Mayor's attorney called many witnesses to attack the charges, and a petition for a writ prohibiting Governor Roosevelt from removing Walker from office was lodged. The proceedings were postponed on August 29, until after the funeral of the Mayor's brother, who died at Saranac Lake on that day.

Miss N. W. Bascombe, B.A., an assistant mistress at the Central British School, living at 4, Queen's Gardens, has reported to the Police that her Austin Seven was stolen from the car park at Statue Square between 4.30 and 10.30 p.m. yesterday.

HITLER'S OUTBURST TO 12,000 GERMANS

While the French Cabinet was considering the German note demanding equality in armaments, Adolf Hitler, the Nazi leader, brought a vast crowd of over 12,000 Germans to a great pitch of enthusiasm with an impassioned speech in which he assailed the Government, ridiculed any possible alliance between himself and Von Papen, and claimed that the Nazis would soon assume power.—(Continued on Page 7.)

ONE DEAD—TWO INJURED.

Fracas on the President Jefferson.

CHIEF OFFICER SHOOT MANIAC.

One Chinese man is dead, and two others seriously injured as the result of a fracas which occurred on board the Dollar liner s.s. President Jefferson, when a Chinese steerage passenger ran amok with a razor.

The dead man, who was suffering from sickness when brought aboard the ship at Manila, is said to be the only witness of the early stages of the affair. The maniac was only disarmed after the Chief Officer had shot him in the leg with a revolver bullet.

The affair took place while the liner was on the high seas at about 5 p.m. on the evening of August 31, two hours after leaving Manila. Details regarding the opening scenes of the drama are few, and the first intimation that anything was wrong came when the Steerage Steward was attracted by shouts and screams from the steerage accommodation. He rushed to the scene, and saw a Chinese passenger brandishing a bloodstained razor, while two other passengers lay bleeding on the deck.

He immediately sent for help and the Chief Officer, Mr. W. Ahrens, arrived armed with a revolver. The officer called upon the maniac to throw down his weapon, but the man who was worked up to a frenzy, assumed a threatening attitude. Realising that pacific methods

SHANGHAI MAYOR ISSUES WARNING.

No Reason For Any Fear Of Fighting.

RUMOURS GROUNDFLESS.

Deplures Evacuation Of Chapel District.

Shanghai, To-day.

Wu Teh-chen, Mayor of Shanghai, in an effort to maintain peace and counteract the acts of the Bloody Groups, in the past few months and the anti-Japanese boycott, issued a circular letter yesterday evening warning the populace against acts of violence and spreading rumours of another war.

The letter, which exhorts calm on the part of the populace, continues: "I pledge myself with the greatest courage and the firmest faith to do everything within my power to safeguard peace and order. I deeply regret the groundless rumours which have been circulated. They have forced Chinese residents from their homes in anticipation of a calamity which does not exist."

The Mayor's reference to the groundless rumours is a direct allusion to the recent evacuation of the Chapel District, which was caused by the anti-Japanese boycott. Since the evacuation, the Mayor has been working to restore normalcy and prevent further disturbances. He also mentioned the recent shooting incident on the President Jefferson liner, stating that it was a tragic event and that the authorities were taking steps to prevent such incidents in the future.

Fashions Ever Move Even In China

Shanghai Becoming Style Centre For Far East

Shanghai, August 30.

To the foreign eye it appears that Chinese dresses hit a certain fashion, like it, and keep it forever. That is entirely wrong. Chinese styles change just as often as Occidental styles, and woe unto the maiden who shows up at a tea dance in one of last Winter's frocks this Winter. Every other Chinese girl will know it immediately.

Occidental styles are decided upon in great fashion centres, and usually by men. Slowly the Chinese are getting around to the same idea and whereas, in the old days, feminine fashions were elected by a special social class of women, by degrees tailors around town are making up the styles for the coming season, inaugurating them, and seeing that they are followed. The Hung Ziang establishment is an important fashion centre. Wung Ziang is another, started at first by a popular young lady named Miss Tong Ying, whose authority in dress was unquestioned. Miss Tong Ying deserted her establishment to get married to a lawyer and it was taken over by men tailors who have successfully followed her precedent of originating the prevailing mode. Henry the Tailor has a number of similar style centres along Bubbling Well Road.

Convenience Important.

Tailors and society women decide upon the current fashion by a careful consideration of Occidental modes and convenience. In colour and length the prevailing foreign fashion is usually followed, but the slits, collar, and sleeves, are usually made up according to convenience. At present the foreign styles say length in skirts and as a consequence the splits have climbed higher and higher as the skirts went down. When skirts were short so were splits. But long skirts and short splits are decidedly inconvenient for walking and dancing.

HOW MARY KEEPS HER SLIMNESS.

Two Meals A Day Is The Secret.

"Mary Pickford is as slim as ever," writes a correspondent in the London Star, and when some "not quite so slim" women friends begged her to tell them the secret, she said:

"Yes, I am rather proud that I haven't allowed myself to get fat." "But how do you manage to do it?" they asked all together. "No lunch!" replied Miss Pickford. "I never have any lunch—just a glass of 'Ovaltine.' Or if I lunch with friends as I do sometimes, then there is no dinner for me in the evening. That is all. But you see how it keeps the hips down."

ing. And it has turned out to be an altogether beguiling logic.

The collar on a Chinese dress always has been, and presumably always will be. But here again the width of the collar varies according to the length of the skirt. This season very high collars are the thing. The girls have a knack for harmony of detail that many a foreign designer might envy. Sleeves, when they are long, are very tight this season. Four years ago they were so wide that a lady had to hold her sleeve up with one hand when she reached across her soup bowl.

Material Constant.

Material is another thing that always stays more or less constant in China. Velvet may be decreed in Paris but silk is cheap in Shanghai and so silk it remains. The little silk worms of China have proved to be successful foil against the intrusion of foreign influences as far as dress material is concerned. But the decoration of a dress changes with each season. It is usually selected with one eye on the design and colours of the material. This season a simple band trimming is the vogue. Last year lace was all the vogue. Last Winter it was embroidery. For the coming season it is predicted that a double band of trimming will be used in place of the single one popular at the moment. Dimensions will also change. Long gowns will be decidedly tighter this Winter.

Tales of Trousers.

Long gowns have only been in fashion for about six years and were taken over from the Manchus. Before that skirts and short blouses were worn by women. And girls wore trousers. After they got married they could graduate into skirts but not before. Trousers were the prerogative of children and maidens.

In those days, too, women's clothing was amply padded, but to-day the fad for slenderness has caused all women to eliminate any superfluous material. Formerly frocks were lined with fur in the Winter time but nowadays parents think they are lucky if they can persuade their daughters to put on two layers of silk before braving the chill November blasts.

Hygiene For The Kitchen

Useful Hints To Housewives.

Half the trouble and boredom of "cleaning up" the sink after the dishes are washed will be avoided, if the housewife invests in a washing-up bowl with a plug in the bottom. The bowl fits into a bin which, in turn, is fitted with a strainer. When washing-up is finished, the plug is taken out of the bowl and the water is released into the bin. But the slightest speck of garbage is trapped in the strainer—to be burnt afterwards with other rubbish.

Another gadget that makes for hygiene is the little three-legged stand that raises the sink tidy, and so prevents its contents from being Machines Do All The Work.

It is a fretful business to be obliged to go to the expense of having all your own and the children's small bits of clothing washed at the laundry. Happily, some ingenious soul has catered for the busy woman by inventing a slick little machine that will come apart and fit into the space of a square foot for travelling. It is both a washing-machine and a dry-cleaner, so that you can not only do your personal laundering but also dry-clean any of your frocks and frills that are looking the worse for wear.

This handy gadget is made with a container into which you put a tablespoonful of soap flakes, warm water, and the clothes to be washed. Then you turn a handle for three minutes if silks are concerned, or for five minutes if cottons or

One Beauty Secret Lies In Care Of Eyes

Judgment of beauty differs considerably according to people's eyes. The lotion will remove any standards some woman's most important point is her beautiful hair or lovely skin, some admire figure more than face—many notice first the mouth or hands, but I don't think I am far wrong when I say that taking a general view the eyes are the feature that most people notice first and remember afterwards. A woman with really lovely eyes is often accounted beautiful even though her nose and mouth are imperfect from a beauty standpoint. The eyes have been described as "Twin windows of the Soul" and this is an apt description mirroring as they do one's every thought and idea. The first important point to remember is no eye is attractive unless it is clear and shining bright with health. Modern life, alas! with its Long Eyelashes.

The effect of long eyelashes enhances the beauty of expression and also makes the eyes look larger. Before using any make of eyelash cream it is wise to make sure beforehand it is a good one. Castor oil put on with a eye brush is very effective in growing luxuriant eyelashes. Some women use just a little vaseline put on with the tips of the fingers. It is also permissible to darken the eyelashes, but here again be careful to use a good water cosmetic which should be applied with a not too damp brush. The eyelashes should always be brushed upwards and outwards—not downwards—otherwise they will not be likely to curl.

A Good Light Essential.

Never, never, sew or read at night in a bad light, as it is absolutely ruinous to any sight however strong or young you are. Always see the light is behind you throwing its rays on to your book or needlework. Cream should never be rubbed into the skin around the eyes as this is very easily stretched, but after a careful cleaning of the eyelids a little cream may be gently patted in with the finger tips. Some Beauty specialists advocate an oil with tonic and feeding properties, but I have always found a good cold cream sufficient as it is easily absorbed and very refreshing, and its use prevents the eyes getting too dry, which they are apt to do in this country. Above all we want to avoid "tired eyes" that tell-tale feature which woman has to guard against so carefully in the hot weather.

washed out every time a bowl is emptied.

Such things not only keep the sink wholesome, but reduce the likelihood of having to call in the plumber to deal with stopped pipes. The provisions, too, of a rubber force-pump, which brings to the surface any odds and ends that may stick to the sides of the pipes, makes assurance doubly sure.

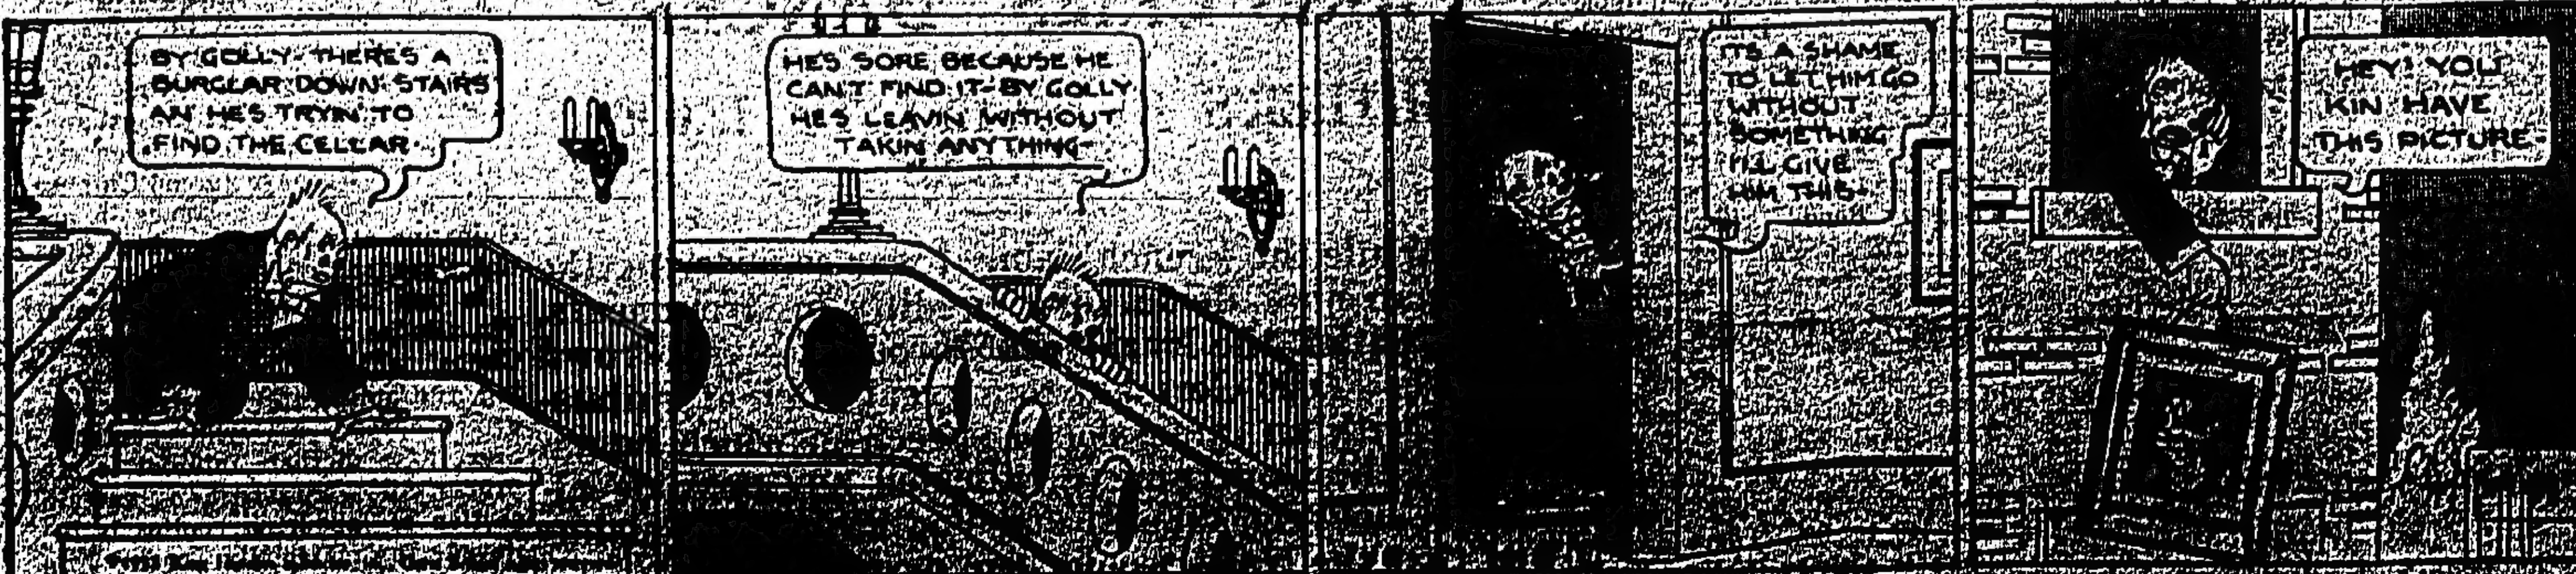

Use the pump just after you have slowly poured down the pipe a jugful of boiling water to which a spoonful of permanganate of potash solution has been added. Two pennyworth of permanganate crystals from the chemist will give enough solution to last the better part of a year, even if you use it every other day.

woolens. The "wash" is then ready for drying off, preparatory to the ministrations of an electric iron. As there are no moving parts inside this little machine, there can be no worry as to materials being torn. The principle upon which the machine is constructed enables it to do its dry-cleaning work on similar lines. But in this case two quarts of the special dry-cleaning fluid that is sold with it go into the container, and the basket is slowly turned for three minutes. The big advantage of dry-cleaning by this method is that, with the majority of fabrics, no subsequent pressing is necessary. The dress or coat is merely hung up to dry. A pleated skirt comes out positively crisp and sharp in line and before and the reverse of a jacket look as jaunty as ever. The fluid is not of the inflammable order, so there is no risk involved.

many up-to-date pursuits which are all hard on the eyes such as motoring, flying and whistling it—cigarettes and cocktails give added lines to the eyes. That invaluable tip which is worth so many doctors' fees and is yet still so often ignored—to take a glass of cold water last thing at night and first thing in the morning will prevent that nasty yellowish tinge in the whites of the eyes and make them clear with a bluish white colour which is the characteristic of the very young and the very healthy.

Regular Basting.
But more can be done in other ways to ensure the eyes remaining clear and the pupils bright. The eyelids should be soothed and refreshed constantly. Every woman should bathe her eyes at least twice daily with a soothing and strengthening lotion. Most of us clean our

ORCHESTRAL NIGHT AT PENINSULA.

Excellent Programme For Sunday.

POPULAR BALLADS.

The fifteenth Symphonic Concert to take place at the Peninsula Hotel on Sunday night, September 4, at 8.45 p.m., promises to be again productive of a thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. The well selected orchestral numbers comprise of excellent compositions, and incorporated in the programme are some pianoforte solos and vocal items.

In the latter respect, Madame Kathleen Chappell, L.R.A.M., L.S.M., and her pupil Mrs. Maurice Tetley, will be the artists.

Madame Chappell has very recently arrived in the Colony. She comes direct from her London Studio and is a well-known teacher and pianist in England. She will play two pianoforte solos "Polonaise in C sharp minor" by Chopin and "Romance" by Sibelius. Madame Chappell will accompany Mrs. Tetley who, in addition to having a voice of exceptional merit is a singer who brings both charm and artistry to her performance.

The group of songs to be sung by Mrs. Tetley are written by three of the finest modern English Song Writers. They are, "A Green Cornfield" by Michael Head, "Early Morning" by Graham Peel and "The Cuckoo" by Martin Shaw. She will also sing the popular ballad "Bird Songs at Eventide" by Coates.

THE REAL MATA HARI.

[To the Editor of "China Mail"]

Sir—So much nonsense has been written and projected upon the screen regarding the famous Mata Hari, that it may be of some interest to your readers to know something of that strange woman.

She travelled from Singapore to Marseilles two years before the Great War, and was introduced in Paris to M. Guimet, the head of the famous Oriental Arts, for the purpose of demonstrating her "Sacred Dances" of the so-called mysterious Javanese rites.

From that moment she began a most successful career as a dancer. Mata Hari—"The Eye of the Morning"—was not all she was alleged to have been. She was tall and dark and slender, with a complexion like ivory, and was generally taken for a Eurasian—in fact, she always pretended that her mother was a Javanese Princess—although, she privately admitted that this was merely business for the sake of her work. She was pure Dutch, and spent all her childhood in the Dutch East Indies where her father was a petty official.

She married a Major McLeod, of the Dutch Army, and was extremely unhappy. Towards the age of 30 years she divorced him and lived for some years in Holland, in very poor circumstances, having barely enough to live upon and keep her child—a little girl who should now be about thirty-five years of age if she is still living. Mrs. McLeod managed to gather enough money to return to Java, and she spent some time in that country, studying some of the local dances. When she left to go to Paris, she was about 38 or 39 years of age, but did not look a day more than thirty. Her figure was splendid, she was not pretty, but she had extraordinary charm, the grace of a snake, and the cunning of a devil.

Strange to say, until she met with marvellous success in her dancing, she was a shy unassuming woman, but success went to her head, and when she saw the great men of Europe at her feet, she seems to have run amok. A dangerous age for a woman, and she proved this. She made lots of money but squandered it as easily as she made it.

She had an inexorable hatred of men; and used to boast that she would ruin as many as she could. She kept her word in a terrible manner. Money became her god. She lived in a magnificent flat in Paris, crowds of men in love with her, and her dances were world famous. For two years she had unprecedented success, but during the war which brought an end to so many theatrical enterprises, she who was mad for money, and spent it as fast as she could make it, had to turn to something else.

It was then she offered her services to Germany, with whom her sympathies unquestionably were. It was lucky for her, that at that time, they were paying such large sums for her valuable services. There is not a word of truth about a love affair with a young Russian officer. She was too cruel, too callous, to know the true meaning of the word love. She proved herself infamous because she was from a neutral country. Had she been German or French, she would have died in honourable service for her country, even though a spy, but she sold her services to the highest bidder. She sent to their doom thousands of men for "Thirty Pieces of Silver," she was a betrayer, and well deserved the fate France meted out to her. There have been absurd rumours that she did not really die, only pretended to fall, and was then taken secretly away and deported. M. Cluett, her lawyer, has emphatically stated that she died before the firing squad in the prison in Vincennes near Paris. She went to her death as a brave woman. No cringing, her beautiful eyes wide open, a smile on her lips, a bouquet of flowers in her hand, and her last words were "All right, France!"

THE DUKHOBORS.

The Dukhobors, a Russian sect founded in the eighteenth century by Pious Lopukhin, and still number many thousands of followers. They deny the Divinity of Christ, reject Bibles, Ceremonies and Images, and give a mysterious interpretation to the Bible. The sect was banished to the Caucasus in 1841, and in later years the Russian Authorities have dealt severely with them. About 7,000 of them settled in Canada in 1899.

Trusting that this will make it quite clear that our local enthusiasts of Sun, Water and Air-Bathing and simple Recreation in the Nude have nothing to do with the Dukhobors.

deck, the weapon then being snatched from him.

Captain A. O. Lustie, U.S.N.R., commander of the ship, stated that he had made a report on the matter to the local agents, and any information regarding the matter must come from them.

Immediately the ship berthed here this morning, Detective Sub-Inspector A. H. Elston accompanied by other detectives took charge of the case.

Death from Illness?

It was later learned from official sources that Ng Hook, the deceased man, was in a serious condition when put on board the ship, and it is not certain whether his death can be attributed to the maniac's outbreak.

It is further learned that two shots were fired into the air as a warning for the man to throw down his razor. He is at present being detained in the mental hospital.

Started in Saloon.

The dead man appears to have been eating at the table when the grim drama started, and his death is stated to have been due to the shock. The two injured men were also in the saloon at the time, and one was severely slashed across the throat and head. The other man received a deep wound which extended from his nose to his ear.

The maniac was removed to an improvised cell at the end of the promenade deck, where his leg was fixed by the doctor. He was kept there until the ship docked here this morning at about 7 p.m., being removed by launch at 8.20.

The victim and the injured men were also removed to the Hospital, one in a critical condition, and the other seriously wounded.

Ng Hook, the dead man, was brought on to the ship at Manila suffering from chronic kidney trouble, a factor which doubtless hastened his death. The names of the injured men are Toy Sheung (critical) and Fung Min. The name of the mentally deranged man is Wong Fun, and although his age was not stated, he appeared to be about 30 years old. While being removed from his improvised cell this morning, he asked for a glass of water, and showed no signs of violence. He gazed wildly around the deck, however, while being placed on the stretcher.

Deepest reticence regarding the affair is being observed by the officers and others on the ship, and a China Mail reporter, making enquiries was greeted with negative replies in all quarters.

On behalf of the Hong Kong Nudist Society, which is now holding regular weekly Sunday outings to its reserved Recreation Grounds in the New Territories, privately placed at its disposal, I beg to state that the Members of the Hong Kong Nudist Society have nothing in common with that fanatical 'Sect' of Dukhobors, first of all because the Local Nudists enjoy their Sun, Water and Air-Bathing and Recreation in the Nude only in special reserved Recreation Grounds away from the public, and enjoy the protection of the local Law, as simple Recreation in the Nude, even by both sexes simultaneously, but away from the Public, is not against the Law.

The following data about this 'Sect' of the Dukhobors may further show that simple and plain Recreation in the Nude has nothing to do with them.

The Dukhobors or Dukhobors, are a Russian Sect founded in the eighteenth century by Pious Lopukhin, and still number many thousands of followers. They deny the Divinity of Christ, reject Bibles, Ceremonies and Images, and give a mysterious interpretation to the Bible. The sect was banished to the Caucasus in 1841, and in later years the Russian Authorities have dealt severely with them. About 7,000 of them settled in Canada in 1899.

Trusting that this will make it quite clear that our local enthusiasts of Sun, Water and Air-Bathing and simple Recreation in the Nude have nothing to do with the Dukhobors.

Ottawa's Economic Lead To The World.

The value of the Ottawa agreements to the British Empire is now apparent and speculation rests on the probable effect on the tariff systems operating in practically all countries. Since the delegates at the Imperial Conference were careful to avoid any pact which would exclude foreign trade it is unlikely that any nations will consider it necessary or advisable to retaliate and there are good grounds for believing that Mr. Baldwin's ideal for the attainment of a new co-operation, which would effect a lowering of tariff walls, may be realised. Ottawa has provided a splendid basis for future progress along those lines and a lead has been given the delegates to the forthcoming world economic conference. The United States, as the Empire's largest trading customer, is naturally most affected by the Imperial preferences and the movement for a reduction of tariffs has gained momentum since the Conference.

Dispatches from Ottawa have paid much attention to American branch factories in Canada. Great Britain is seeking a larger market for her manufactures in the Dominions. She encounters competition not only from their industries but from goods made by American producers operating through subsidiary organisations. The tendency of American industry to emigrate to foreign countries is particularly evident in Canada but is not confined to that market. American capital has been acquiring plants strategically situated in all parts of the world. Its movement into foreign countries has been under way for many years but in the present scale is a post-war development.

In a report submitted to Congress in 1931, the Department of Commerce stated that there were only 107 American industrial plants in which American capital was invested in Canada. This figure was based on a survey made in 1929, and it is estimated that the number has since increased to about 150. The report also stated that the value of American exports to Canada in 1931 was $1,000,000,000, and that the value of Canadian exports to the United States was $1,000,000,000.

The report further stated that the value of American investments in Canada in 1931 was $1,000,000,000, and that the value of Canadian investments in the United States was $1,000,000,000. It also stated that the value of American exports to Canada in 1931 was $1,000,000,000, and that the value of Canadian exports to the United States was $1,000,000,000.

ed to 524 and to 453, respectively. At that time the value of American capital invested in foreign factories amounted in the case of Canada to $819,468,000 and in the case of Europe to $628,895,000. In addition, there were American investments of $230,959,000 in 153 factories in South America and of $133,904,000 in 106 establishments in Africa and Asia. The total value of American investment in productive enterprises abroad was $1,818,000,000. A large part of this investment was made after 1925, and particularly in 1928 and 1929. The reasons for this exodus of American industry, apparently resumed on a larger scale in 1931 after slowing down in 1930, are readily identified. There has been a desire to take advantage of foreign wage scales and of proximity to foreign markets, with a consequent reduction of transportation charges. But a factor probably of still larger influence has been provided by post-war competition in protective tariffs. As rates on imported goods went up, through successive readjustments, the pressure on American industrialists to get in behind foreign tariff walls and compete on even terms for foreign markets has steadily increased. The consequence has been an appreciable reduction in the number of jobs available to American labour and in the amount of American raw materials used in the production of manufactured goods.

ADOPTION HOAX DISCOVERED.

Woman Attempted To Escape Payment.

A fine of $250 or three months' hard labour was imposed on Wong Sau-ching, a woman from Amoy, at the Bowdoin Magistrate's Court yesterday, when the case in which she was charged with having taken part in a transaction to transfer possession, custody or control of two girls aged 14 and 15 was concluded.

It was alleged by Inspector Sharkey, of the N.I.A., who presented the case, that the woman had agreed to adopt the two girls, who were the daughters of a Chinese man, for the sum of $120. The girls were then taken to the woman's home, and she was charged with having taken part in a transaction to transfer possession, custody or control of the girls.

DIOCESAN SCHOOL'S PROSPECTUS.

Large Staff Serves Boys' Community.

STEADY EXPANSION.

New Master Coming From England.

An attractive booklet prospectus has just been issued by the Diocesan Boys' School, for 1932-33. The issue is beautifully illustrated and shows to advantage the well-chosen position of the school. Other photographs depict the spacious dormitories, and other departments, while a good idea of the well-laid out grounds can be gained from other illustrated pages.

The teaching staff of the school at present consists of the Headmaster, Mr. C. B. R. Sargent, M.A., eight assistant masters, seven of whom are resident, a music master, four assistant mistresses, six Chinese assistant masters, and one student teacher. The staff of the school also includes a matron and a clerk.

Another assistant master will be arriving from England to take up duties next month. He is Mr. Luard, who has been on the staff of Sheborne, and holds a good degree in English and Classics. Mr. E. C. Thomas, who is at present on leave, will be returning from Home shortly.

Founded in 1860.

The D.B.S., which is one of the oldest schools in the Colony, was originally founded as a school for Chinese girls in 1860, then being situated at the corner of Bonham Road and Eastern Street. The establishment was thrown open to mixed classes of any nationality in 1869, and in 1890 a Girl's School was started, since when only boys have been admitted.

The work on the site for the new buildings in Kowloon was started in 1924, and in 1926 the school moved into its new premises, considered to be among the finest in the Far East. It was badly affected by the strike of 1925, at the time of the transfer to the new building, and in 1927, the pupils and staff were confined to a single section when the Military authorities used the premises as a hospital with 450 beds.

In spite of these setbacks, the number of pupils has continued to increase, and at present there are about 330 boys in the school, nearly 100 of whom are boarders, and about 70 per cent. Chinese.

The school is run along the lines of an English Public School, and has a great reputation for producing sportsmen as well as scholars.

were useless, the officer was forced to fire, to prevent the man from committing further outrage. The shot entered the man's leg, breaking the bone, and he fell to the money and his subordinates felt hurt. They resigned en masse and it was only by distributing half of the prize money among them that Col. Ting prevailed upon them to return to duty.

Discontent remained, however, and about 30 officers left their posts and came to Hong Kong. Here they joined General Cheng Wai-cheung, who had advanced the principle of conscientious objection to fighting anyone but his country's enemies. He refused to be embroiled in civil strife and these men adopted his attitude.

Commander Wong Kwong-yue, at Canton, was afraid that his flying officers might run away with his planes and twice tendered his resignation. General Chan, Commander-in-Chief, refused to accept it. But although General Chan prevailed upon his Commander to remain with him, no amount of enticing could bring the other airmen back.

It was when Mr. Wu returned from America that General Chan made his strongest bid for the services of those outside his control. He held out many inducements to Mr. Wu, but all these the latter steadfastly refused. When he finally accepted the post of adviser to the Air Force in Canton, he remained in office only four days and then slipped away to Hong Kong in secret. Thus, General Chan lost the chance of securing for his force the planes which overseas money had purchased.

Since Mr. Wu left his post in Canton, still more airmen have followed the example of the discontented faction, and have left the administration.

Promise of Employment.

It appears that the reason for Mr. Wu's sudden departure from Canton was that he might join General Cheng Wai-cheung. General Cheng had been in communication with General Wang

FRANCE CONSIDERS GERMAN NOTE

Paris, To-day.

"The Premier reported to the Cabinet on the foreign situation," was the laconic communiqué issued after the three and a half hours' sitting of the Cabinet to consider the German memorandum on the subject of equality of armaments. At the end of the session there were no revelations.

Nothing is known to have transpired officially at the Cabinet meeting and the contents of the German note are hidden but, according to a summary published in the Journal des Debats "from a reliable source" it contains no figures and precise details but asks France to enter into frank and confidential conversations, which alone can lead to agreement.

Shao-hung, Minister of Home Affairs, and it was following discussions with this official that the Minister cabled Marshal Chiang Kai-shek on General Cheng's behalf and received in reply a message stating that if General Cheng wished to serve in the Central Government he would bring the matter before the proper authorities and in due course see that General Cheng was appointed to a high position and his flying followers given employment of a nature which they would find satisfactory.

Accordingly, General Cheng called a conference of the flying officers and it was decided that should they receive the appointment from Nanking, they would organise three groups of fighting machines, and when they were called, go into action under the direction of the Central Government.

General Wang is visiting his native village, and on his return to Hong Kong in the near future, General Cheng will accompany him to Nanking to discuss details of the arrangement suggested by Marshal Chiang.

If France is willing, Germany will inform Britain and the United States, who might participate in discussions, the paper adds. The note emphasised the necessity of finding a basis for scaling down of armaments and assuring the security of all states, where in Germany would help. But they must also consider their own security in case of the need for defence.

Germany is willing to dispense with arms prohibited to others, but insists on the right to those allowed her neighbours. The note adds that copies of the demands are being sent to other powers.

While Paris papers, published before the Cabinet meeting, echoed to the cry to stand firm, Premier Herriot himself, after the Cabinet meeting counselled coolness and caution pending the careful examination of the document from Germany.—Reuter.

Britain Informed.

London, To-day.

In accordance with the terms of the European Consultative Pact, the British Government has been kept fully informed as to developments in connection with Germany's claim to equal rights regarding armaments.

This claim was emphasised during the closing stages of the Geneva Disarmament Conference and has now been formally renewed.

Although the British Government are watching events with interest, they will not for the present take any active part in negotiations that may be begun between Germany and France as a result of proposal for discussions, which are contained in "aide memoire" left with the French Ambassador in Berlin. Reports state the French Cabinet would consider the German representations at a meeting this evening.—British Wireless Service.

FRENCH UPSETS.

Brooklyn, Mass., Aug. 27.
In an unexpected upset, Ellsworth Vines and Keith Gledhill, of California, won the national doubles tennis title here to-day, easily defeating the defenders, Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn.

Vines, the young American and Wimbledon singles champion, and his California partner outclassed the American Davis Cup doubles team at every stage, sweeping the match in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

The outcome was a decided surprise, as Allison and Van Ryn, a veteran combination, were never defeated in the long run of this year's Davis Cup play, beating the French doubles pair of Henri Cochet and Christian Bouteau in Paris in the challenge match, and losing but one important match in the French play in the Wimbledon tournament in England.

The victory added more laurels to the two Californians, who this season have tested defeat

Cowes Yachting

KING POPULAR WINNER ON OPENING DAY

BEATS SHAMROCK v. WITHOUT CALLING UPON TIME ALLOWANCE.

Brilliant weather favoured the official opening of Cowes Week when the racing was under the auspices of the Royal London Yacht Club, whose Commodore, Sir Charles C. Allom, was unable to be present on account of illness. Rain fell early in the morning, but it ceased before the time fixed for the start of the racing.

There was a good westerly breeze with just a touch of south in it. Full courses were sailed in all the eight events which followed.

The King was a popular winner in the chief race of the day, his famous old cutter, Britannia, leading the fleet home, and winning without calling upon her time allowance, Shamrock V and Westward had a keen race for the second place, the schooner Westward losing by a matter of seconds.

In the 12-metre Class a keen race was won by Morwenna, formerly the Moyana, which won her second victory of the season. Dolly Varden, a cutter over 50 years old, sailed by her veteran owner, was an easy winner in the Cruiser Class. The Americans again provided the first three boats to finish in the 6-Metre Class. Ancora II was the best of the British-owned craft.

The King On Board.

The King and the Duke of Gloucester were aboard the Britannia in the chief event of the regatta of the Royal Southampton Yacht Club. The royal cutter did not, however, figure in the prize list, Candida winning her first race in the big class this season. The conditions from a sailing point of view were most unfavourable. There was only a very light south-westerly breeze blowing at the start. This, however, veered to the east later in the day, and the Committee decided to shorten the courses in the four principal events, although the small classes sailed two rounds.

Hugh Pail's Astra was a non-starter in the race for the big class. In the event T. K. F. Davis's schooner, Westward, was at scratch, and allowed T. Sopwith's Shamrock V, 1 minute 49 seconds, W. L. Stephenson's White Heather, 11.3 minutes 50 secs, and the King's Britannia and H. Andres's Candida, 6 minutes each over the full course of 39 miles but as only one round was sailed these allowances were halved. They went away at 11 o'clock the four cutters being in close company, Candida leading over the line from White Heather, Shamrock, and Britannia, with Westward last. They had the benefit of the last of the west-going tide as they beat down to the Solent Banks Buoy, where Candida was 40 seconds ahead of Shamrock, and 1 minute 55 secs. ahead of White Heather, Britannia then being fourth boat, 25 seconds astern of the last named, and Westward 5 1/2 minutes behind the leader. Spinners were carried to star-board as far as Egypt Point but the breeze now came easterly, and they had to bear to the Ryde North-East Middle, where Candida still held a good lead from White Heather, Britannia and Shamrock. In the order named, Westward having retired off Cowes. They again set spinnakers for the run home, but made slow progress due to light airs. Candida now had the race well in hand, and ultimately won by over 43 minutes. Shamrock overhauled first Britannia and then, White Heather, but although she finished second, she only qualified third prize, the second going to White Heather on time allowance.

An International Flavour.

Of the other races, Mr. A. C. Connell's Naida, won the 12 metre class, Col. Gabriel's The Lady Anne, won the Handicap for yachts between 35 and 110 tons. An international flavour was imparted to the match for the 6-metre class by the participation of four American and one Dutch competitor. One of the American craft finished first, and the Dutch boat was seventh, the finishing times being Lucie, 4hr. 59 min. 48 secs, winner; Ancora, II, 5-6-14; 2, Nancy, 5-7-40; Nada, 5-12-9; Cresta, 5-14-0; Bob Kat, 5-16-9; Lou, 5-17-41; Finetta, 5-22-16. Jill gave up.

INTERPORT IN TIENTSIN FOR GAME.

Shanghai, August 28.

A cricket team from the Shanghai Cricket Club will leave Shanghai on September 12 to play an interport match against the Hankow Recreation Club in keeping with an old rivalry that has existed for years. The local side will be picked entirely from the Cricket Club as the match is purely an inter-club affair and does not embrace all the players in Shanghai.

Hankow has never been very strong in cricketing strength and should a full and representative side be picked, the touring team would be able to overwhelm their hosts. As it is, a fairly representative team from Shanghai is to go up and it is anticipated that play should be very interesting. A. L. Piper is to captain the local eleven and will be aided by H. A. Coward as vice-captain while the following are the probable team: C. J. H. Spraggett, W. James, W. H. Findlay, P. J. Wilson, A. C. Sinclair, S. C. Riggs, L. A. Heap, H. L. Smith and G. F. Gardener.

Owing to the floods in Hankow last year it was impossible to hold the competition, but this summer will see a revival and the friendly rivalry has always brought about some fine spirited play. Two matches will take place in Hankow, the main game being the "interport" against the Hankow Recreation Club. This has always been a two innings affair and should there be sufficient time, the "Rest of Hankow" will play against the visiting side in a one innings match.

Hankow was heavily defeated in 1929 when they came down here but in the following year our visiting side lost by the narrow margin of ten runs and it is expected that both teams will be very keen to win. The visitors will be away for about two weeks and expect to return to Shanghai before the end of the month.

Capable Leaders.

A. L. Piper or "Pip" as he is best known has served the Gunners very well this season and will be a good "skipper" while Coward behind the sticks has served Shanghai in many an interport. Piper's hard hitting has been a feature of a number of matches and when he "comes off," the opposition is generally sent leather hunting.

Archie Sinclair has been putting up big scores in league cricket and combines his sport in many ways. He will have the unique experience of playing for Shanghai in the water polo match in Tientsin and then taking a train and making the journey to Hankow to represent the local Club there. "P. J." Wilson has shown some excellent form this year and his inclusion has come as a well merited reward to some good performances in Sunday and mid-week matches. He is equally good with the bat as he is with the ball and can be relied upon to serve us well.

The bowling will be left to Wilson, Findlay and with possibly Sinclair and James as change bowlers. Piper can likewise take a hand here, and with a fairly average batting side, the visitors will make a good showing, F. Marshall will be revisiting some of his former colleagues as he has recently come down from Hankow where he was regarded as among the first flight of batsmen and we have no doubt he will show that he has lost none of his former style.

Besides playing cricket, the visiting team have taken on their hosts at swimming and water polo and other games and there is little doubt that this "interport" will likewise have its pleasant interludes, and the versatility of Shanghai's athletes will be shown again.

MISS WATTLES WINS N.Y. GOLF TITLE.

Succeeds Miss Helen Hicks.

DEFEATS MISS SNYDER.

Miss Peggy Wattles of Buffalo has succeeded Miss Helen Hicks as women's golf champion of New York State by defeating Miss Frances Snyder of Rye, eight and six, in a 36-hole match at the Yahnundasis Club.

The Buffalo girl, who recently won the Western New York championship, was very steady throughout while Miss Snyder could not equal the game with which she conquered Miss Hicks.

Miss Wattles's card for the 36 holes the match lasted, showed 16 par holes, eight birdies and eight over par, while Miss Snyder collected 12 pars, five birdies, one eagle and had 12 holes over standard figures.

Miss Snyder's drives lacked length, and her short game, particularly her putting, left many openings, of which Miss Wattles took full advantage, after gaining halves when losses seemed certain.

One characteristic, however, she showed—the ability to fight after uncertain shots—again was a feature of the Rye girl's game, and several times she thrilled the fans with marvellous recoveries.

Miss Wattles's approach putting was nearly perfect. She had only one 3-putt green in the match and the rest of her shots were almost all of them of the same pattern, never being far off the line nor variable in distance.

Miss Wattles gained a 3-up lead on the first 18 holes, and when they resumed play after luncheon she made it five up, with victories on the 19th and 20th holes. The winner had an 84 in the morning to 87 for Miss Snyder.

GOLF SET IN ONE.

A rule, prominently displayed at the municipal links at St. Louis states that each player must be equipped with a caddy bag and set of clubs. It was pointed out to a golfing pair who appeared carrying but one club apiece.

They were allowed to play, however, when they showed their "trick" irons were adjustable to various lofts, thus really constituting six clubs in one.

I may rush from a dinner to a 'Talkie' and later on to a dance. But—

Round The Greens By "Straight Wood"

Interest in the lawn bowls league is rapidly waning now that both championships have been decided, and most players appear to be concentrating on their club competitions. To-morrow's first league programme is a repetition of the "Derby Day" we had a fortnight ago. On that occasion, a win for Civil Service on the Craigengower green would have left the championship undecided, but the visitors lost by 8 shots to give Craigengower the season's honours. I have an idea that the champions will repeat their victory on the Civil Service ground. This should be the best match of the day, with the Tai Koo and Kowloon Dock game a very close second. The Peninsula men suffered one of their few home defeats when these teams met recently although the margin against them was only 5 shots, and they will consequently be out for their revenge. I rather fancy the home team to complete the "double," a feat which has been rarely achieved in these matches.

THE WOODEN SPOON.

The Police and the Kowloon Bowlers will very likely have as close a battle as they did on August 20 when the former, as visitors, won the match by the 2 shots scored on the last lead. A win would give the Kowloon men a chance of being for the wooden spoon, but I am afraid they have about as big a talk as they can manage. There should not be many shots in it at the finish, and I decline to take the chance of selecting the winner.

Neighbours in the Club de Sports and the Kowloon Cricket Club resume their rivalry on the latter ground, and, in view of their away win on the occasion of their last meeting, it seems the Peninsula have a good chance of being the victors.

SECOND DIVISION.
The Peninsula Bowlers Association will play the Kowloon Bowlers Association on Saturday, September 3, at 3.30 p.m. at the Kowloon Dock.

ATTENTION! SHIELD.

The Open Championship Final between H. Nish and L. A. Gutierrez will take place at the Kowloon Cricket Club green on Thursday next, not on Tuesday as previously arranged. Thanks to very efficient organisations by the Sub-Committee, the competition has been played off very promptly, whilst the interest that has been engendered is all for the good of the game. The Clubs who have been privileged to stage matches have entered into the spirit of the scheme heartily and the arrangements made have left nothing to be desired. I understand that the Official Closing Day will be on Saturday, October 15. The Aitkenhead Shield will be played for on that day, followed by the presentation of the season's trophies. No. 20, Aitkenhead Shield, are to take part in the Shield match which will be played on the grounds of the Kowloon Bowlers Association.

CRICKET.

WAZIR ALI SCORES SIXTH CENTURY.

Big Partnership With Naidu.

TOURISTS DRAW.

London, To-day. A magnificent partnership between Wazir Ali (141) and C. K. Naidu (104 not out) coupled with the brilliant bowling of Naidu were the features of the two-day match between the All-India XI and the Indian Gymkhana Club which was abandoned as a draw yesterday.

The tourists took first use of the easy paced wicket and brilliant batting by Wazir Ali, who reached three-figures for the sixth time this season, gave the visitors an early advantage, which Naidu completely consolidated with a stylish knock for 104. The tourists' innings was declared closed at 343 for 4 as soon as Naidu reached his fifth century.

The Indian Gymkhana, one of the strongest elevens competing in London Club Cricket, were dismissed when only 23 runs in arrears, Naidu capturing half the wickets for 81 runs.

The tourists were scheduled to have played a two-day fixture against a Wales XI at Colwyn Bay, but owing to unforeseen circumstances the Indian Gymkhana Club were forced to act as substitutes.—Reuter.

AMERICAN WINNING WALKER CUP.

Yesterday was the eclipse of the sun and to-day the eclipse of the British golfers. They lost all four matches by substantial margins. Sweetser and Voigt led the Hartley brothers by 5 up at the conclusion of the first eighteen holes.

Seaver and Moreland had established a big advantage over Torrance, the British captain, and John de Forest, at the conclusion of the first eighteen holes, being 7 up. The Americans led by nine at the twenty-second, but a recovery on the part of the British pair reduced their lead to 5 at the twenty-ninth.

Seaver, America's longest hitter drove 300 yards at the fourteenth, and also had the distinction of holing a 25-yard putt at the sixth for a birdie three.

Quimet, the American captain, and Dunlap were 5 up at the end of eighteen holes against Stout and Burke. Quimet was putting brilliantly and never once failed on the green.

Eric Fiddian and Eric McRuvie, the two youngest members of the British side, won the first four holes during their second round against Moe and Howell. At the twenty-seventh they were only two down, but that was their limit, and they faded away before the American pair's splendid long driving.

Eight singles matches will be played on Friday.—Reuter.

BRITAIN'S DUTIES AID INDUSTRY.

Protection Given To Various Trades.

BRIGHTER PROSPECT.

London, To-day.
 As a result of deliberations of the Import Duties Advisory Committee, the imposition of additional duties on a number of commodities is announced with a view to encouragement of home industry. A typical instance is in leather gloves, duty on which is raised by 10 to 30 per cent., by which the Committee believes British manufactures in middle and higher class grades, will be able with this encouragement progressively to replace foreign imports and improve their exports similarly.

With a view to the encouragement of mass production in the scissors industry, duties on scissors are raised by a scale according to their length. Other articles affected include hair combs, wrapping paper, poultry, meat pastes, and sausages. Simultaneously a list is issued of imports, consisting largely of textile manufactures, and articles of apparel, whereon a drawback of customs duties is allowed on re-exportation, after September 5.—Reuter.

INDEMNITY FUND'S DESTINATION.

Going To Purchasing Commission.

UNIVERSITY AIDS.

London, To-day.
 The last account of the China Indemnity Fund was published in a "white paper" to-day. Under the Act last year's sums received on account of the China Indemnity Fund will now be paid to the Government Purchasing Commission and the Board of Trustees.

The account shows £266,000 paid to the Hong Kong University and £206,315 to other universities of the China Committee in London. The balance of £3,504,837 will be handed to the China Government Purchasing Commission.—Reuter.

NEW VESSEL FOR BERMUDA RUN.

Quadruple—Screw Ship Launched.

London, To-day.
 Lady Cubitt, wife of the Governor of Bermuda, launched at the Vickers, Armstrong Works at Barrow the new liner "Queen of Bermuda," which is a quadruple screw turbo-electric vessel, 676 feet in length and 76½ feet in breadth. She is equipped for carriage of passengers, mails and general and refrigerated cargoes for the New York—Bermuda run of the Furness Bermuda Line.—British Wireless Service.

UNWELCOME VISITOR TO LEAVE COLONY.

Wai Mun Fascinated By European Ease.

MAKES LITTLE CALLS.

Wai Mun, a middle-aged Chinese, has an unusual habit, and because police consider it ill-mannered and almost without precedent, they are sending him back to Shanghai. Wai Mun on two occasions has been discovered in the homes of Europeans in the Colony, drowsing in the living room or in a bedroom, and enjoying the ease for which his heart yearns. But recently, when he was perhaps in search of a soft couch on which to rest, he allegedly wandered into a house at No. 14, Macdonnell Road. He found a bedroom where a lady slept peacefully, her clothing draped over a chair. The house boy told the story of this visit to Magistrate Wynne-Jones in Central Police Court. He said he saw Wai Mun standing outside the house with the clothing over his arm and that he had not protested when seized and held and forced to wait for the police. The charge was dropped, in this case, because there was no corroboration. But Wai Mun will leave the Colony, just the same.

Inspector Elston, of the Water Police, has twice had to remove Wai Mun from European homes, and is tired of the unwelcome visitor.

MOLLISON LANDS AT QUEBEC.

Ready To Sail For Home To-morrow.

TO CONTINUE HONEYMOON.

Quebec, To-day.
 Mr. J. A. Mollison, British airman of Atlantic crossing fame, landed here from Sydney, Nova Scotia to-day preparatory to returning to England on Saturday aboard the s.s. Empress of Britain. He said he is planning to continue his interrupted honeymoon which lasted only a week before he left.—Reuter.

Felt His Weakness.

London, To-day.
 Mr. Mollison left Sydney, N.S., by air to-day for Quebec and will sail for England to-morrow. Replying to Lord Wakefield's cable urging the abandonment of his return flight across the Atlantic, Mollison says, "Unfortunately, human machinery cannot stand the strain as well as my machine and engine. I realise that any mishap due to the physical element would be detrimental to the best interests of aviation which you have done so much to further."—British Wireless Service.

FAIR GENERALLY.

To-day's weather report from the Royal Observatory states:—The anticyclone over North China has increased in intensity. Pressure is low over the China Sea. Forecast:—N.E. winds, moderate; fair generally.

HITLER'S FIGHTING SPEECH.

"We Shall Take Control As Our Right."

CROWD CHEERS IN FRENZY.

Berlin, To-day.
 Surrounded by a bodyguard including the ex-Kaiser's son, Prince Augustus Wilhelm and the new Speaker of the Reichstag, Captain Herr Goering, Herr Adolf Hitler roused an audience of 12,000 at the Sports Palace into an almost religious frenzy by a fighting speech against the Government on the first day after the expiration of the political truce.

He sharply criticised Herr Von Papen and his clique of noblemen, and said that their attempts to turn back the tide would be in vain. The day would come when the State would be identical with the Nazi Party which would then undertake the regeneration of Germany.

Herr Hitler scoffed at the idea of joining Herr Von Papen's Cabinet. "We shall take over the Government as our right. We don't need an army as a safeguard. Our backbone is the nation itself," he said.

Alluding to the disparity in age between President Hindenburg and himself, Hitler shouted, "Let him dissolve the Reichstag a hundred times. We shall win through soon, for we have the longest wind."

The audience jumped up and cheered until they were hoarse.—Reuter.

COOLIES LEAP FROM RUNAWAY LORRY.

Two Detained In Hospital.

Becoming frightened when the engine of a motor lorry, on which they were riding, failed to function when proceeding uphill on Garden Road, and the lorry began to slide backwards downhill, five coolies, three women and two men, jumped in terror to the road. The lorry was carrying a small load of bricks at the time.

All five sustained injuries and were removed to the Government Civil Hospital for treatment. One woman and a man were detained, while the rest were allowed to leave after their wounds had been dressed. The woman, Cheung Yui 83, is suffering from injuries to her leg, while the other patient, Tang Sang, has injuries to his head.

COMMANDER HALL AT END OF FLIGHT.

London, To-day.
 Commander Hall, who left Croydon aerodrome on August 8 on a solo flight to Australia, completed his journey to-day when he arrived at Wyndham from Gosport.—British Wireless Service.

Mr. Kasama, the present Japanese Minister to Persia, will be appointed Minister to Portugal shortly. Japan has hitherto had no legation in Portugal.
